

C2HR

CONTENT & CONNECTIVITY HUMAN RESOURCES ASSOCIATION

Welcome!

Your company has enrolled you as a 2023 C2HR member. As you can see by the list of members below, you're in excellent company! Unlike other HR associations, C2HR is industry-specific, so you'll be learning and networking with professionals from companies across the technology, media and entertainment industry. We invite you to make the most of your membership by exploring all that we offer as detailed on the next page.

Member Benefits

HR professionals in the technology, media and entertainment industry leverage their involvement in C2HR to stay abreast of HR trends and make valuable connections with colleagues across the industry.

Professional Development

- The HR Learning Series (free for members) offers expert insight on a variety of topics and interactive Q&A via live and on demand webinars.
- C2HR CON is our signature learning experience. It will be held August 5-6, 2024 in Brooklyn, New York and will feature a dynamic collection of speakers and high-impact topics. Members enjoy a discounted registration rate.
- Many of our programs are approved by SHRM and/or HRCI for continuing education (CE) credits.

Meaningful Networking

- Interactive webinars in our HR Learning Series provide a way to engage with HR experts and colleagues.
- C2HR CON is the largest gathering of HR professionals from our industry. The event provides a variety of opportunities to network and make connections across our HR community.
- Follow our LinkedIn account to receive news and member accolades in your feed.
- The online membership directly makes it easy to connect with any of our 4,800 members.
- Communities of Practice provide a forum to engage with professionals focused on a key HR function or topic. New in 2024!
