C2HR Seeks HR Game Changers

NAPERVILLE, ILL., February 8, 2024 —The HR Game Changers Awards program is dedicated to recognizing human resources professionals in the media, technology and entertainment industries who go above and beyond their roles to innovate, drive results and elevate the employee experience. C2HR is accepting nominations now through March 14.

"The HR Game Changers Awards provides recognition for talent at all levels and in all corners of HR. We want to hear about the amazing individuals and teams across the C2HR member community," shared Parthavi Das, C2HR's executive director.

Each C2HR member company is encouraged to collectively submit its nominations by March 14. Details are at https://c2hr.org/awards/nomination/. Award winners will be honored during the C2HR CON on August 6, 2024 in Brooklyn, NYC and featured in Cablefax Daily and HR Pulse. Cablefax is the longtime sponsor of C2HR's awards program.

The HR Game Changers award categories are:

Advocates are individuals and teams who elevate the people within an organization through diversity and inclusion initiatives. They remove barriers and create opportunities to empower diverse talent across the organization.

Cultivators build culture and amplify employee engagement by encouraging cross-department communication and collaboration. They are true ambassadors of relationship building and the glue that binds countless employees into a unified, synergistic team.

Ignitors champion development and mentoring programs in their quest to elevate others. Their commitment to creating a clear pathway for advancement is inspiring.

Strategists have the ability to see the big picture. They work tirelessly to advance their vision from a concept to a reality, thus helping their organizations achieve greater success.

Transformers leverage data, technology and creative thinking to innovate programs, processes and initiatives. They are passionate agents of change who exhibit agility and a fierce determination to drive results.
